METZGER FAMILY HISTORY

The earliest record of Metzgers available was from Brumbaugh's book, "Brumbach Families," which states on page 376 that Theobald Metzger from Weibnom died at the Hague, Holland, on Feb. 23, 1691 as Lieut-Gen. and Gov. of Breda and left a large estate which is covered by his will and codicil of Feb. 2, 1691. On March 30, 1878, Consul Mueller wrote from Amsterdam saying, "in 1857 all old Dutch claims passed forever to the Dutch Government."

The immigrant John Metzger, born 1741 in Wurtemberg, Germany, came to America in about 1758 and landed in Baltimore, one record says. On page 639 in "Brumbach Families" it says: "He was a Dunkard in religion and was married near Bedford, Pa., settled on a farm in the vicinity of that city, and died at the home of his son-in-law, John Brumbaugh." He died in 1807. The old Metzger estate was near Fredericksburg in Morrison's Cove, now in Blair County, Pa. When they lived there it was Bedford County. Blair County was formed in 1846. The immigrant John is burried there. Prof. Lawrence Shultz, North Manchester, Indiana, from whom the above information was received, has visited the old estate in Blair Co. Although no graves or original buildings were found, the old lime kiln was found and Prof. Shultz erected a stone as a symbol in a field near the old Clover Creek Church of the Brethren.

WILL OF JOHN METZGER, SR.
born Wurtemburg, Germany IA
1758 - 1807
Will in Bedford County, Pa. Register's Office
Will dated May 26, 1806 - Will Book I pp 241-242

In the Name of God Amen - I, John Metzger of Woodberry Township, Bedford County, State of Pennsylvania, beirg in good state of health and of perfect mind and memory thanks be to God for His Mercies, and calling to mind the mortality of my body, and that it is appointed to men once to dye, I constitute and ordain this my last Will and Testament - first of all and principally, I recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God, that gave it, not doubting I shall receive the same again by the mighty power of God, and my body to be burried in decent Christian manner, and at the discretion of my executor - and as for my worldly estate as it pleased God to help me with in this Life, I give and dispose of it in the following manner and form - First and foremost - I say if my Lands and Tennements be not sold before my decease, my heirs shall be entitled to sell and convey the same at the first good advantage, if not all agree there may be any five of my children at liberty of selling and conveying the same, and my personal Estate shall be sold or any way disposed of by my Executor, and further - my Estate Rale and personal shall be equally divided amongst my heirs as follows -

The most of my heirs has received parts of a legacy of me - only son Andrew has received none at present.

My son, John Metzger, has received of me as a legacy the sum of One Hundred and Thirty-Seven pounds and Nine Pence.

And my son, Henry, has received Forty-eight pounds, eleven shillings and eleven pence.

My son, Jacob, has received Fourteen pounds, nine shillings and ten pence.

My eldest daughter, which is Elizabeth, has received Fourteen pounds, thirteen shillings, and six pence.

My daughter, Susanna, has received Twenty-five pounds, six shillings and ten pence.

My daughter, Catharina, has received Three pounds, two shillings and six pence.

My daughter, Christiana, has received Thirteen pounds and sixteen shillings.

My daughter, Mary, now deceased, was intermarried to Ludwig Cloppert - has received Twelve pounds and one penny.

And further in work done by my son, Andrew, to the said Ludwig Cloppert in my place for the sum of Thirteen pounds, ten shillings and ten pence, which shall be charged to them as a legacy without any interest in my lifetime but after my death they shall be charged interest until all is equally settled amongst them.

My daughter, Catharine, is to have an even share with all the rest - and her heirs, but in case she should depart out of this world without any heirs of her body, before her husband, Henry Bender, then said Henry Bender may have the liberty to keep the same in his lifetime, and after his decease the same shall fall back without interest from the final settlement of my Estate, and after his decease it shall be equally divided among my other heirs - concerning my daughter, Mary, now deceased as before mentioned was intermarried to Ludwig Cloppert, shall be entitled to the legacy as before; until his four children who was of my daughter, Mary - viz, one son and three daughters, shall arrive to age - The son to the age of twenty-one years and each daughter to the age of eighteen years; each and every one of these shall be entitled to their mother's legacy - only the son shall have the sum of Sixteen Dollars more than one of his sisters. The said Cloppert, or any one who has the said legacy in hand shall not pay any interest for the same until their age as aforesaid, and from that time pay interest until paid, and further it is my will that my sons who had not received of me as much as others shall draw One Hundred pounds each first and next my daughters until all equal, and if any of my children has received more than their share that the legacy came to, they shall pay the overpaid back to the rest.

Lastly, I constitute my son and Friend, Jacob Metzger, of Woodberry Township, Huntingdon County, State of Pennsylvania, my sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament, and I do utterly disallow, and revoke all former Testaments and Wills, ratifying this and no other to be my last Will and Testament.

In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 26th day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Six in the year of our Lord - signed, pronounced, and declared by the said John Metzger, Sen. as his last Will and Testament, in the presence of us -

The immigrant John's son, Andrew, was born January 3, 1785 and died February 17, 1848. He was married to Mary Ulrich, born 1786, and they had nine children: Susanna, Katherine, Stephen, Andrew, Mary, Jacob, Anna, Barbara, and John. In 1828 Andrew, with three of his sons (Stephen, Andrew and John), emegrated from Montgomery Co., Ohio, to Clinton Co., Ind. Each of the young men took claims for homesteads of 160 acres south and west of Rossville, Indiana.

Stephen Metzger was married to Mary Ulery. To them were born 8 children: Andrew, married to Betsy Hufford; John married to Barbara Metzger; Jacob, married to Evy Metzger; Isaac, married to Betsie Metzger; Stephen, married to Katie Cripe; Joseph, married to Lydia Cripe; Aaron, married to Susie Metzger; Mary, married to John Metzger.

John Metzger was married to Susie Shively. To them were born six children: Daniel, married to Katie Ulery; Mary, married to Henry Skiles; Barbara, married to John Shively; Susie, married to David Skiles; Andrew, married to Lydia Skiles; John, married to Mary Metzger.

Andrew, (our line), son of Andrew, was born February 3, 1814. According to the Family Bible he died March 20, 1899, aged 85 years, 1 month and 17 days. His tombstone in the Middle Fork Cemetery states he died March 21, 1899, aged 85 years, 1 month and 18 days. He married Barbara Ulrey August 8, 1838. According to the Family Bible she was born May 15, 1816 and died May 27, 1902, aged 86 years and 12 days. Her tombstone states she was born May 15, 1819, which evidently was a mistake as it states she was 86 years and 12 days.

To them were born seven children - five sons and two daughters:

John F. - born Aug. 31, 1839, died Feb. 17, 1918
married Anna Cripe
Catherine- born June 4, 1841, died Dec. 29, 1876
married Leonard Wagoner
Mary - born Apr 29, 1843, died Sept. 29, 1894
married Solomon Blinckenstaff
Andrew - born Oct. 6, 1846, died July 8, 1920
married Lavina Hufford
Noah - born Sep. 16, 1849, died Nov. 22, 1882
married Mary Ann Gochenour
Solomon - born Sep. 11, 1852, died Apr. 11, 1859
Jacob C - born Sept. 5, 1856, died Mar. 19, 1919
married Susanna Gochenour

A BRIEF HISTORY OF THE JOHN F. METZGER FAMILY

Grandfather (Andrew Metzger) gave each of his sons a farm. To John F. he gave 120 acres west of Edna Mills, a rolling but very fertile farm with half or more in timber, a large sugar camp. At that time a public road crossed the farm right by the buildings on the south. Later our parents built a bank barn farther north, back from the road; also a brick house a short distance from the road. Later the road was changed to north of buildings a little distance.

On this farm all their nine children were born. The first, a stillborn son, is burried east and south of the small town of Pettit, which is two miles west of the home, in Tippecanoe County. Lydia and Leah were married while living on this farm. On the 31st of October, 1899, which was Katherine's (the youngest child) sixth birthday, our parents moved in with our grandmother, three miles southwest of Rossville, on a 40 acre farm, leaving Noah, Lizzie and Ida on the 120 acre farm.

When Noah got married the 7th of January, 1900, Ida moved home, Lizzie stayed until fall, then she too moved home with the rest of us until she was married in 1903. Grandmother lived two and a half years after we moved in. Noah bought the 120 acres.

Mother was the first to be called away, in 1911; and seven years later Father also passed away, leaving Ida, George, Dora and Katie to keep house for six months, when we all took influenza and George died. This left three sisters to struggle along for a year, then Ida got married, leaving Dora and Katie alone for three years when Katie got married. In 11 months Dora also got married; thus ended the John F. Metzger family. Ida, George, Dora and Katie bought the 40 acre farm which Grandfather (Andrew) Metzger owned.

We all had the privilege of being at our parents' bedsides when they passed away. Later, in the spring of 1928 Dora moved to Elkhart County, and Katie moved to California. The others all died in Clinton County, except Noah, who is still living at the age of 84 years.
